Agnes M Kalemaris* (kalemaam@farmingdale.edu), Mathematics Department, SUNY at Farmingdale, Farmingdale, NY 11747. Grace Murray Hopper, B.C.

Grace Murray Hopper (1906-1992) continues to receive recognition for her work in the field of computer science. However, her background in mathematics is usually just mentioned in passing. This talk will focus on Dr. Hopper as a mathematician and, in particular, look at some of her non-traditional teaching techniques. (Received September 25, 2000)
