

962-C1-1436

Paul A Sundheim* (psundhei@uwc.edu). Audiographics as a Mathematics Course Delivery System.

Audiographics is a real time distance education tool involving audio and video conferencing links. This talk will cover an overview of the tools involved as well as the benefits and deficits of using audiographics in the teaching of linear mathematics across the state of Wisconsin. (Received October 11, 2000)