

1014-Z1-1582 Fred Worth (worthf@hsu.edu), Box 7783, Arkadelphia, AR 71999. "But I Got the Right Answer!".

Often times students get correct answers to problems in spite of the fact that the work leading to the answer was incorrect. This talk will look at several examples of common errors and consider when these errors actually do produce correct answers. (Received September 28, 2005)