

1094-05-107

Benjamin Braun* (benjamin.braun@uky.edu), 715 Patterson Office Tower, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY 40514, and Sarah Crown Rundell (rundells@denison.edu), Department of Math and Computer Science, Denison University, 100 West College St, Granville, OH 43023. Hyperoctahedral Eulerian Idempotents, Hodge Decompositions, and Signed Graph Coloring Complexes. Preliminary report.

Phil Hanlon proved that the coefficients of the chromatic polynomial of a graph G are equal (up to sign) to the dimensions of the summands in a Hodge-type decomposition of the top homology of the coloring complex for G . We prove a type B analogue of this result for chromatic polynomials of signed graphs using hyperoctahedral Eulerian idempotents. (Received August 15, 2013)