Laminations in Higher Teichmüller Theory.

I will explain what laminations are in higher Teichmüller theory, how they generalize Thurston’s theory of measured laminations, and the role that they play in the quantization of the moduli space of local systems on a topological surface. (Received February 10, 2014)