We describe explicit bijections between Eliahou-Kervaire symbols of certain Borel ideals and pointed pseudo-triangulations of the single chain, objects of interest in discrete geometry. Binary trees serve as a convenient intermediary between the two types of objects. (Received August 06, 2015)