The representation of a given quantity with less information is often referred to as 'quantization' and it is an important subject in information theory. The aim of quantization for probability measures is to approximate a continuous probability measure with discrete probability measure with finite support. I will talk about it. (Received August 25, 2015)