The set $P_n$ of matchings of $2n$ points arranged on a circle can be given a partial order, obtained by “uncrossing” strands. This poset arises from the study of planar electrical networks. I will discuss some features of this poset, including a proof that this poset is Eulerian. (Received January 13, 2015)