We will discuss the connected components of the moduli space of representations of the fundamental group of a closed surface of genus at least 2 into the Lie group SO(p,q). In particular, we will show there are more components than expected and discuss which components consist of discrete and faithful representations. (Received July 18, 2016)