

1137-97-352

John S Caughman* (caughman@pdx.edu), Portland, OR. One Mean Problem on Intermediate Values.

In this talk, I will share one of my favorite problems for engaging students at all levels. When used in an appropriate group setting, this problem can provide opportunities for students to practice justification and the ensuing discussions can lead to rich conjecturing and exploration. (Received February 06, 2018)