We shall discuss the distribution of the numbers generated by a finite set of multiplicatively dependent algebraic numbers of absolute value larger than 1. This generalizes work of Tijdeman on the distribution of integers which are formed from a finite set of primes. (Received January 25, 2019)