Talagrand concentration inequalities compare Wasserstein distance and relative entropy. They are related to other functional inequalities, such as log-Sobolev and Poincare. These inequalities have been proved for solutions of stochastic differential equations. We prove them for versions of such equations with normal reflection in convex domains. (Received July 13, 2018)