In this talk, we will introduce a class of total variation bounded (TVB) spectral methods for solving one dimensional scalar hyperbolic conservation laws. The main idea is to apply a TVB limiter to the existing spectral methods such that the total variation bounded. Numerical results are provided to demonstrate the capability of our proposed schemes. (Received August 16, 2019)