A 1933 mathematical poetry book, Shishubodha Tarangini (A series of lessons for children), written in Nepali language incorporates about twelve different standard meters. This presentation will touch upon these different verses written in meters. Most part of the presentation will be spent on reciting these mesmerizing mathematical verses. (Received July 09, 2019)