

1167-97-315

Aris B Winger* (aris.winger@gmail.com), 1012 Jonathan Lane, Tucker, GA 30084. From the Abstract to the Personal: Who you must become to do Equity work.

Now more than ever, opportunities are present to infuse our classrooms and educational spaces with content that can transform individuals and society. But can anyone lead this work? What dispositions are required? Who must we strive to become for this work to be most impactful? In this talk, we will discover creating social change sounds great on the surface, but meaningful and lasting change never arrives until we critically demand a prerequisite amount of transformation within ourselves. (Received March 09, 2021)