Date:

The Joint Policy Board for Mathematics (JPBM) is a consortium of non-profit mathematics organizations that promotes awareness of mathematics through Mathematics Awareness Month. In preparation for Mathematics Awareness Month (April), the JPBM chooses a theme, produces a poster and maintains a website. The JPBM would like to include the following image in the poster or on the website. This educational material will be distributed free of charge. The material may be reproduced for these purposes in the following media:

- Postings on the JPBM website,
- Posters and/or other materials to display and/or hand out, to increase awareness of the Mathematics Awareness Month theme

The JPBM requests permission to use and distribute worldwide in both print and electronic media the material described below, allow the work to be shared on social media and by email, and to archive the work on mathaware.org. Proper credit will be given using the following information. If you would like the JPBM to use a specific credit line, please supply the desired wording at the bottom of this page.
