REPORT OF THE TREASURER

The Treasurer this year again presents to the membership an abridged statement of the Society's financial position, set up in semi-informal narrative style. A copy of the completed Treasurer's Report as submitted to the Trustees and the Council will be sent to any member requesting it from the Treasurer from the Providence office. Moreover, the Treasurer will be happy to answer any questions members may wish to put to him concerning the Society financial affairs.

Returns on invested funds this year have been at the rate of 3.52% computed on book value after deductions of custodial expense.

I
A DESCRIPTION OF THE FINANCIAL POSITION OF THE SOCIETY AS OF DECEMBER 31, 1969

The Society had cash on deposit
In the Rhode Island Hospital Trust Company... $ 10,653.25
In petty cash and drawing accounts.............. 1,135.05

$ 11,788.30

It had investments in its Agency account........
By the United States Government................. 42,312.36
By members, subscribers and others
(less allowance for doubtful accounts)........... 511,675.65

553,988.01

It had prepaid expenses and deposits...........
And it invested in its Headquarters Building and Office equipment.................................... 276,517.99

81,565.72

Making of total of Current and Fixed Assets of......1,871,043.44

The Society also held Investment Securities and uninvested principal cash valued at (the approximate market value December 31, 1969 was
$1,458,000.00).................................... 1,391,877.29

Total Assets, therefore, were........................ $3,262,920.73

Offsetting these assets, the Society
Had Accounts Payable............................... 191,886.37
Had deferred payments of publication charges........ 30,315.97
Had reserved royalties payable to Russian authors...... 18,316.77
Had reserved unearned dues and subscriptions........ 929,119.90
Had other miscellaneous liabilities and reserves........ 35,692.84
Had reserved in its Building Fund................... 354,980.21
Had funds and grants received from various special sources to support particular projects such as the Summer Institute, Symposia, etc. 210,459.77
Had a deficit in its Publication Funds (31,492.30)

Less the amounts included therein representing National Science Foundation grant balances unpaid 233,860.47

(54,893.00)

178,967.47

Its General Fund reflected a surplus balance of 365,624.38

Thus accounting for all the Current Funds $1,871,043.44

The Invested Funds represent the following:

1. The Endowment Fund, largely the gift of members $100,000.00
2. Robert Henderson Endowment Fund 548,223.20
3. Joseph Fels Ritt Memorial Fund 22,521.19
4. The Library Proceeds Fund, derived from the sale of the Society's Library in 1959 66,000.00
5. The Prize Funds 127,497.15
6. Dues and Publication Reserve Fund 58,590.04
7. Mathematical Reviews Subscription Reserve Fund 80,000.00
8. Reserves established by the Trustees to protect life memberships formerly available, and as a "hedge" against investment losses 306,278.51
9. Royalties earned by Russian Authors 52,215.73
10. Other funds, derived mainly from bequests to the Society by members, which Trustees were either required to invest or which they have invested at their option—the income being used for the general purposes of the Society 30,551.47

A total of Invested Funds of 1,391,877.29

Total Liabilities and Fund Reserves, therefore, were 3,262,920.73

II

AN ACCOUNT OF THE FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS OF THE SOCIETY DURING THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1969

The Society has two types of receipts: Funds for special purposes and projects, and the General Fund, from which are met the general operating expenses of the organization, including the publication of the Bulletin, the Proceedings, Mathematics of Computation, the Notices, New Publications, Contents of Contemporary Mathematical Journals, Mathematical Reviews, and the Transactions. Income from sales of and subscriptions to these journals is placed in the General Fund, but in practice is allocated to the expense of the journals themselves. It is so treated in the following presentation:

To meet its general obligation the Society received:

From dues and contributions of individual members ........................................ $ 217,993.58
From dues of institutional members .............................................................. 87,765.00
From dues of corporate and associate members ............................................. 16,000.00

$ 321,758.58

Less amount allocated to Notices and Bulletin ........................................ $ 148,819.00 $ 172,939.58

From sales and support of scientific journals of the Society .......................... 1,290,630.01
From investments and trusts ........................................................................... 63,143.04
From publication charges ............................................................................... 151,279.39
From miscellaneous sources ........................................................................... 11,166.28

Total General Receipts .................................................................................. 1,689,158.30

These Funds were expended:

For expenses of scientific journals of the Society ...................................... 1,286,323.37
Net Transfers to other Special and Publication Funds which includes support of membership services .................................................. 198,715.11
In subsidies to non-Society publications1 ...................................................... 6,810.87
For miscellaneous and other expenses ......................................................... 75,242.12

Total General Expenses and Transfers ....................................................... 1,567,091.47

Operating surplus credited to General Funds ............................................. 122,066.83

The Treasurer wishes to take this occasion to express his deep gratitude to the Assistant Treasurer, Professor Murray H. Protter, for his helpful assistance and wise counsel in the financial affairs of the Society. Professor Protter also served as Acting Treasurer during the first five months of 1969 while the Treasurer was on leave abroad.

Respectfully submitted,

W. T. MARTIN
Treasurer

April 1, 1970

1 The journals subsidized in 1969 were the American Journal, the Canadian Journal, the Illinois Journal, and Rocky Mountain Journal.