The Department of Computing and Mathematical Sciences (CMS) at the California Institute of Technology invites applications for the position of Lecturer in Computing and Mathematical Sciences. This is a (non-tenure-track) career teaching position, with full-time teaching responsibilities. The start date for the position ideally is September 1, 2017 and the initial term of appointment can be up to three years.

The lecturer will teach introductory computer science courses including data structures, algorithms and software engineering, and will work closely with the CMS faculty on instructional matters. The ability to teach intermediate-level undergraduate courses in areas such as software engineering, computing systems and/or compilers is desired. The lecturer may also assist in other aspects of the undergraduate program, including curriculum development, academic advising, and monitoring research projects. The lecturer must have a track record of excellence in teaching computer science to undergraduates. In addition, the lecturer will have opportunities to participate in research projects in the department. An advanced degree in Computer Science or related field is desired but not required.

Applications will be accepted on an ongoing basis until the position is filled.
