

2023 Election

Election Results

In the elections of 2023, the Society elected a president, a vice president, a trustee, five members at large of the Council, three members of the Nominating Committee, and two members of the Editorial Boards Committee. The membership also adopted bylaws changes.

President-elect

Photo credit: Rod Seancey

Ravi Vakil

Stanford University

Term is one year as President-elect
(February 1, 2024–January 31, 2025)

Term is two years as President
(February 1, 2025–January 31, 2027)

Term is one year as Immediate Past President
(February 1, 2027–January 31, 2028)

Vice President

Photo provided by Irene Fonseca

Irene Fonseca

Carnegie Mellon University

Term is three years
(February 1, 2024–January 31, 2027)

Board of Trustees

Photo provided by Duke University Communications

Jonathan Mattingly

Duke University

Term is five years
(February 1, 2024–January 31, 2029)

Members at Large of the Council

Term is three years (February 1, 2024–January 31, 2027)

Photo provided by Matilde Lalín

Matilde Lalín

Université de Montréal

Photo provided by Jennifer Murawski, Communications

Naomi T. Cameron

Spelman College

Photo provided by Sara Maloni

Sara Maloni

University of Virginia

Photo provided by Andrew Putnam

Andrew Putnam

University of Notre Dame

Photo provided by Brian Kennedy

John Voight

Dartmouth College

Nominating Committee

Term is three years (January 1, 2024–December 31, 2026)

Donatella Danielli

Arizona State University

Michael Hill

University of California, Los Angeles

David Savitt

Johns Hopkins University

Editorial Boards Committee

Term is three years (February 1, 2024–January 31, 2027)

Ben Green

University of Oxford

Robert Lazarsfeld

Stony Brook University

All bylaws amendments passed. These are described in the election section of the September 2023 issue of the Notices (p. 1310, available at <https://www.ams.org/journals/notices/202308/rnoti-p1310.pdf>). The resulting current version of the bylaws is available at <https://www.ams.org/bylaws>.