

1018-35-84

Rafe Mazzeo and Andras Vasy* (andras@math.stanford.edu), Department of Mathematics, Bldg 380, Stanford University, 450 Serra Mall, Stanford, CA 94305-2125. Scattering theory on symmetric spaces and N-body scattering.

I will explain how techniques from quantum N-body scattering shed light on scattering theory on symmetric spaces. In particular, this connection explains which features of symmetric spaces are ‘typical’ in a larger context, and which are due to the special algebraic features. (Received February 28, 2006)