

1020-53-206

Fengbo Hang, Department of Mathematics, Princeton University, Princeton, NJ 08544,
Xiaodong Wang*, Department of Mathematics, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI
48824, and Xiaodong Yan, Department of Mathematics, Michigan State University, East
Lansing, MI 48824. A nonlinear integral equation in conformal geometry.

In this talk I will discuss a nonlinear integral equation which arises in conformal geometry. It is motivated by the isoperimetric problem and shares several important features with the Yamabe problem. (Received August 28, 2006)