

1021-11-4

Niranjan Ramachandran*, University of Maryland, College Park. Zeta!

Zeta functions arose in number theory but have since then permeated other branches of mathematics too such as dynamical systems and geometry. In this talk, we shall give a partial view of zeta functions and the geometric/arithmetical significance of their special values. (Received November 30, 2005)