
From the AMS

1999 Election Results

In the elections of 1999 the Society elected a president elect, a vice president, a trustee, five members at large of the Council, two members of the Editorial Boards Committee, and three members of the Nominating Committee. Terms for these positions are three years beginning on 01 February 2000 and ending on 31 January 2003, except for the president elect, whose term is for one year (followed by duties as president and as immediate past president) and for the trustee, whose term is for five years ending on 31 January 2005. Members elected to the Nominating Committee begin serving immediately and their terms end on 31 December 2002.

President Elect

Elected as the new president elect is Hyman Bass from the University of Michigan.

Vice President

Elected as the new vice president is David Eisenbud from the University of California, Berkeley and MSRI.

Trustee

Elected as the new trustee is Eric M. Friedlander from Northwestern University.

Members at Large of the Council

Elected as new members at large of the Council of the Society are

Patricia Bauman from Purdue University

William Fulton from the University of Michigan

Martin Golubitsky from the University of Houston
Jonathan M. Rosenberg from the University of Maryland
Lisa Traynor from Bryn Mawr College

Editorial Boards Committee

Elected as new members of the Editorial Boards Committee are

Palle E. T. Jorgensen from the University of Iowa

Gregory F. Lawler from Duke University

Nominating Committee

Elected as new members of the Nominating Committee are

Ruth M. Charney from Ohio State University

Frank Morgan from Williams College

Ramesh A. Gangolli from the University of Washington

Suggestions for elections to be held in the fall of 2000 are solicited by the 2000 Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee will be meeting during the Annual Meeting in Washington, DC, in January. Positions to be filled in the 2000 election are: vice president, trustee, and five members at large of the Council.

Suggestions for nominations for election for two positions on the Editorial Boards Committee and three positions on the 2001 Nominating Committee are also welcome and can be sent to the secretary.