

2003 Election Results

In the elections of 2003 the Society elected a president elect, a vice president, a trustee, five members at large of the Council, two members of the Editorial Boards Committee, and three members of the Nominating Committee. Terms for these positions are three years beginning on 1 February 2004 and ending on 31 January 2007, except for the president elect, whose term is for one year (followed by duties as president and as immediate past president), and for the trustee, whose term is for five years ending on 31 January 2009. Members elected to the Nominating Committee begin serving immediately, and their terms end on 31 December 2006.

President Elect

Elected as the new president elect is James G. Arthur from the University of Toronto.

Vice President

Elected as the new vice president is Vaughan F. R. Jones from the University of California, Berkeley.

Trustee

Re-elected as trustee is Linda Keen from Herbert Lehman College, City University of New York.

Members at Large of the Council

Elected as new members at large of the Council are James W. Cannon from Brigham Young University
Sylvain E. Cappell from Courant Institute of Mathematical Sciences, New York University
Beverly E. J. Diamond from the College of Charleston
Mark Goresky from the Institute for Advanced Study
Alejandro Uribe from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor

Nominating Committee

Elected as new members of the Nominating Committee are Annalisa Crannell from Franklin and Marshall College
Arthur M. Jaffe from Harvard University
Joel H. Spencer from Courant Institute of Mathematical Sciences, New York University

Editorial Boards Committee

Elected as new members of the Editorial Boards Committee are

Emma Previato from Boston University
Karl Rubin from Stanford University

Amendments to the Bylaws

The Amendments to the Bylaws were approved.

Suggestions for elections to be held in the fall of 2004 are solicited by the 2004 Nominating Committee. Positions to be filled in the 2004 election are: vice president, trustee, and five members at large of the Council. Suggestions should be sent to the secretary.

Suggestions for nominations for two positions on the Editorial Boards Committee and three positions on the 2005 Nominating Committee can also be sent to the secretary:

Robert J. Daverman, Secretary
 American Mathematical Society
 312D Ayres Hall
 University of Tennessee
 Knoxville, TN 37996-1330
secretary@ams.org

The deadline for suggestions is 29 February 2004.