

Call for

NOMINATIONS

The selection committees for these prizes request nominations for consideration for the 2008 awards, which will be presented at the Joint Mathematics Meetings in San Diego, CA, in January 2008. Information about these prizes may be found in the November 2005 issue of the Notices, pp. 1243–1260, and at <http://www.ams.org/prizes-awards>.

LEVI L. CONANT PRIZE

This prize was established in 2000 in honor of Levi L. Conant to recognize the best expository paper published in either the Notices of the AMS or the Bulletin of the AMS in the preceding five years. Levi L. Conant was a mathematician at Worcester Polytechnic Institute. His will provided for funds to be donated to the AMS upon his wife's death. The US$1,000 prize is awarded annually.

JOSEPH L. DOOB PRIZE

This prize was established by the AMS in 2003 and endowed in 2005 by Paul and Virginia Halmos in honor of Joseph L. Doob. The prize recognizes a single, relatively recent, outstanding research book that makes a seminal contribution to the research literature, reflects the highest standards of research exposition, and promises to have a deep and long-term impact in its area. The book must have been published within the six calendar years preceding the year in which it is nominated. Books may be nominated by members of the Society, by members of the selection committee, by members of AMS editorial committees, or by publishers. The US$5,000 prize is awarded every three years.

DISTINGUISHED PUBLIC SERVICE AWARD

This award was established by the AMS Council in response to a recommendation from their Committee on Science Policy. The award is presented every two years to a research mathematician who has made a distinguished contribution to the mathematics profession during the preceding five years.

Nominations for all prizes should be submitted to the secretary, Robert J. Daverman, American Mathematical Society, 312D Ayres Hall, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, TN 37996-1330. Include a short description of the work that is the basis of the nomination, with complete bibliographic citations when appropriate. A brief curriculum vitae should be included for the nominee. The nominations will be forwarded by the secretary to the appropriate prize selection committee, which, as in the past, will make final decisions on the awarding of these prizes.

Deadline for nominations is June 30, 2007.
