

Graduate Student Travel Grants to 2009 JMM

Deadline: October 27, 2008

The AMS, with funding from a private gift, is accepting applications for partial travel support for graduate students attending the Joint Mathematics Meetings in Washington, DC, January 5–8, 2009. The awards, in the amount of US$500, must be matched by travel funds from the students' institutions.

This program is open to full-time graduate students (in good standing) in a mathematical sciences department at a North American institution.

Apply by October 27, 2008. The forms and instructions are located on the AMS website at www.ams.org/employment/student-JMM.html. The deadline for submitting applications is October 27, 2008. Questions can be sent to student-JMM@ams.org or call 800-321-4267, ext. 4124; or 401-455-4124.
