Senior Faculty Position in Applied and Computational Mathematics

As part of Texas A&M University’s recognition of the increasing importance of the modeling and computational sciences, the Department of Mathematics (http://www.math.tamu.edu) is recruiting for a senior faculty position in applied and computational mathematics. This position is one of three new senior lines dedicated to computational science that were created as part of an initiative led by the Institute for Applied Mathematics and Computational Science (http://iamcs.tamu.edu). As a result, successful candidates for this position should be able to demonstrate a strong record of research accomplishments and leadership both within the mathematics discipline and in multidisciplinary initiatives. Documentation of such success should include a record of publication in both mathematics and a multidisciplinary application area and examples of collaboration and program building. Special emphasis will be placed on applied analysis and scientific computation. Areas of particular interest are multiscale modeling and simulations as well as uncertainty analysis.

Additional information can be obtained by contacting the search committee chair, Dr. Jay R. Walton (jwalton@math.tamu.edu).
