Upcoming Topical Workshops

Heterostructured Nanocrystalline Materials

May 30, 2012 – June 1, 2012

Organizers:

Tim Schulze, University of Tennessee

Vivek Shenoy, Brown University

Peter Smereka, University of Michigan

NSF/CBMS Conference: Finite Element Exterior Calculus (FEEC)

June 11 – 15, 2012

Organizers:

Alan Demlow, University of Kentucky

Johnny Guzmán, Brown University

Dmitriy Leykekhman, University of Connecticut

Speakers:

Keynote: Douglas Arnold, University of Minnesota

Richard Falk, Rutgers University

Anil Hirani, University of Illinois

Bridging Scales in Computational Polymer Chemistry

August 6 – 10, 2012

Organizers:

Andrew J. Christlieb, Michigan State University

Cecilia Clementi, Rice University

Keith Promislow, Michigan State University

Mark Tuckerman, New York University

Zhengfu Xu, Michigan Tech

To learn more about these and other programs, organizers, confirmed participants, and to submit an application, please go to our website:

Participation: ICERM

welcomes applications for long and short-term visitors. Support for local expenses may be provided. Applications may be submitted at any time and will be considered as long as funds and space remain available. ICERM encourages women and members of underrepresented minorities to apply.

About ICERM The Institute for Computational and Experimental Research in Mathematics is a National Science Foundation Mathematics Institute at Brown University in Providence, RI. Its mission is to broaden the relationship between mathematics and computation.
