American Mathematical Society—Contributions

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

Every year through their philanthropy, our members and friends demonstrate their passion for mathematics. They actively partner with the American Mathematical Society to advance mathematical research and scholarship globally and locally. Their support furthers our mission and strengthens our resolve to serve the interests of mathematicians everywhere.

In 2012 the people and organizations listed herein gave in support of the Society's various initiatives. The AMS continues to place a high priority on programs that support early career mathematicians. The return on these programs is tangible and substantial. For example, Mathematics Research Communities support advanced graduate students and recent doctoral recipients. Travel grants are awarded to more than 400 graduate students and postdocs every year to attend meetings or meet with collaborators. Student Chapters were launched in the fall. The Epsilon Fund continues to support over 500 students annually in math camps for talented young scholars. And we are in the final stages of planning for the launch of Activity Groups. Generous donor support enriches all of our meetings and conferences, makes publications freely available, and strengthens programs that serve the mathematics community.

To everyone whose names appear on these pages - including those who have chosen to remain anonymous—I want to say thank you! Your resolve to make a difference through your giving is working. Its positive impact will be felt this year and in the future. We at the AMS appreciate and are grateful for your commitment.

Donald E. McClure
Executive Director

Tribute Gifts

Beloved family members, friends, and colleagues can be remembered with a tribute gift during their lifetime (i.e., in honor of) or when their life has ended (i.e., in memory of). Such gifts are an expression of respect and goodwill that greatly benefits the mathematics community. The AMS is pleased to recognize our 2012 tribute donors and the people they have remembered.

On November 16, 2012, members of the AMS Executive Council and Board of Trustees gathered with management staff to celebrate the rededication of the Donor Wall of Honor. Chair of the Board of Trustees Ron Stern, left, and Executive Director Don McClure, right, gave brief remarks before unveiling the Donor Wall of Honor. Acknowledging those who have made gifts to the AMS of $1,000 or more in one year, the Wall has been on display at the Providence, RI, AMS Headquarters since 1995. Added to the Wall were 26 new nameplates, a fourth name plaque, and a masthead plaque that quotes Isaac Newton, "If I have seen further it is by standing on the shoulders of giants." The AMS is grateful to its donors for their abiding commitment to enrich mathematics and pleased to maintain the Donor Wall of Honor as a token of its gratitude.
