

Call for NOMINATIONS

The selection committees for these prizes request nominations for consideration for the 2014 awards, which will be presented at the Joint Mathematics Meetings in Baltimore, MD, in January 2014. Information about these prizes may be found at www.ams.org/profession/prizes-awards/prizes or in the January 2012 issue of the Notices, pp. 79-100.

JOSEPH L. DOOB PRIZE

The Doob Prize recognizes a single, relatively recent, outstanding research book that makes a seminal contribution to the research literature, reflects the highest standards of research exposition, and promises to have a deep and long-term impact in its area. The prize is awarded every three years and the book must have been published within the six calendar years preceding the year in which it is nominated. Books may be nominated by AMS members, members of the selection committee, members of AMS editorial committees, or by publishers.

LEONARD EISENBUD PRIZE FOR MATHEMATICS AND PHYSICS

The Leonard Eisenbud Prize for Mathematics and Physics honors a work or group of works that brings mathematics and physics closer together. Thus, for example, the prize might be given for a contribution to mathematics inspired by modern developments in physics or for the development of a physical theory exploiting modern mathematics in a novel way. The prize is awarded every three years for a work published in the preceding six years.

DISTINGUISHED PUBLIC SERVICE AWARD

This award, which is made every two years, recognizes a research mathematician who has made a distinguished contribution to the mathematics profession during the preceding five years.

Nominations with supporting information should be submitted using the online form available here: www.ams.org/profession/prizes-awards/nominations. Include a short description of the work that is the basis of the nominations, including complete bibliographic citations. A brief curriculum vitae for the nominee should be included. Those who prefer to submit by postal mail may send nominations to AMS Secretary, Carla Savage, Box 8206, Computer Science Department, North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC 27695-8206. The nominations will be forwarded by the secretary to the appropriate prize selection committee, which will make final decisions on the awarding of these prizes.

Deadline for nominations is June 30, 2013.
