The all-new enhanced AMS journal references now present greater opportunities for users to access valuable information in the mathematical sciences literature. Enhanced references, which are offered for select journals, combine authors' bibliographies with data from MathSciNet® to provide additional features, as listed below. The references also deliver more complete and standardized bibliographic information.

Enhanced references provide direct links to:

- Articles via DOI (Digital Object Identifier)
- MathSciNet author pages*
- Journal articles published by the AMS*
