Employers may reserve slots of duration in 1 hour increments beginning on the half hour, except for the slightly extended time 12:15 – 1:30 on Wednesday.

Prior to the 2023 JMM in late fall 2022, employers will have access to a resume book of people attending the Joint Mathematics meetings. AMS staff will provide login credentials to MathJobs.org, where the resumes will be housed.

The booth will be staffed by AMS staff and volunteer personnel. Exhibitors may wish to bring small-footprint signage or a customized tablecloth for the slots in which they are scheduled; they may bring printed materials to display at the booth throughout the exhibit times.

Those already planning to attend JMM and those working in the Boston area may be especially interested in this opportunity.
The cost is $100/hr; the period 12:15 – 1:30 on Wednesday is counted as 1 hour.

To request time slots at the BEGIN Careers Booth or obtain additional information, email BEGINcareers@ams.org. Priority in fulfilling these requests will be based on the order in which they are received.

If your company would like to purchase booth space for the duration of the conference, please see the Information for Exhibitors.

If your company would like to participate in the JMM career fair, please mention that interest in your correspondence with BEGINcareers@ams.org.
