By this Amendment, the American Mathematical Society (AMS) grants username/password access to MathSciNet® to the authorized user listed below (the Individual), subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the MathSciNet License Agreement, the “Terms of Use” posted on the MathSciNet website and the following additional terms, all of which are hereby agreed to between the AMS and the Individual.

An authorized user must be affiliated with an institution that has a current subscription to MathSciNet. Should the authorized user become unaffiliated with the subscribing institution, this agreement will terminate. This agreement is valid for only the current subscription year and will not be renewed automatically.

Individual Use Restrictions: The authorized user will receive one (1) username and a password to allow access to MathSciNet from any site by the authorized user only. This entitles the authorized user to access MathSciNet to:

- a) make searches of MathSciNet;
- b) make one or more copies in hardcopy form of the output of any search; such copies may not be sold and may not be distributed to anyone who is not an authorized user; and
- c) download search results to hard disk or diskette, provided that such data are not made available to anyone who is not an authorized user.

An authorized MathSciNet individual username/password user may not make his/her username/password available to anyone. Username/password accounts are not to be shared among individuals. The individual is solely responsible for all security, and all use (including unauthorized use), of the Individual’s username and password.
