

Communications of the AMS Editorial Committee

General Description

- Committee is standing
- Two Co-Editors-in Chief
- Approximately seven additional Editors
- Term is four years
- Up to 20 Associate Editors

Principal Activities

Communications of the American Mathematical Society is devoted to publishing research articles of the highest quality in all active areas of mathematics, including both theoretical mathematics and that emphasizing applications. Occasionally, survey articles on important areas of mathematics will also be published, especially ones that emphasize the emerging interface between theoretical and applied mathematics. The journal will be published in electronic format only.

The Editorial Board will solicit, acquire, review, edit, and publish articles in Communications of the AMS.

Other Activities

Miscellaneous Information

The Managing Editors (Co-Editors-in-Chief), who also chair the Editorial Committee, will be elected by the Council, upon the recommendation of the Editorial Boards Committee (EBC). The other editors are appointed by the President upon recommendation of the EBC in consultation with the Managing Editors. The Managing Editors and the Editorial Committee are supported by a board of associate editors who are appointed by the President upon the recommendation of the EBC. Travel reimbursement for this committee has been designated at LEVEL B. Associate Editors are not eligible for travel, only the Managing Editors and the Editorial Committee.

Editors normally serve no more than two consecutive terms.

From the charge to the Editorial Boards Committee:

The [Editorial Boards] Committee shall recommend appointees to certain editorial committees to the AMS President and the Council. To that end, it shall solicit suggestions for those editorial committees by consulting with managing editors, current editorial committees, and other interested parties. The committee should take into account both the interests of the publications and the overall interests of the Society.

Note to the Chair

Work done by committees on recurring problems may have value as precedent or work done may have historical interest. Because of this, the Council has requested that a central file system be maintained for the Society by the Secretary. Committees are reminded that records of work should be kept and submitted annually to the Secretary for archival purposes. Confidential material should be noted, so that it can be handled in a confidential manner.

Authorization

25 April 2020 Council Item 4.3.1: Committee was created.
