The maximum likelihood degree is the number of complex critical points of the likelihood function on a projective variety. A wide class of such varieties is provided by hierarchical log-linear models and graphical models, a subclass of toric varieties. We will show how to compute the maximum likelihood degree of these models and exhibit examples. (Received February 19, 2018)