

ARTICLE IX
PROGRAMS

Section 1. Papers intended for presentation at any meeting or sectional meeting of the Society shall be passed upon in advance by a program committee appointed by or under the authority of the Council; and only such papers shall be presented as shall have been approved by such committee. Papers in form unsuitable for publication, if accepted for presentation, shall be referred to on the program as preliminary communications or reports.

Section 2. No matter of general business shall be considered at any meeting of the Society except the Annual Meeting without the recommendation of the Council.

ARTICLE X
PUBLICATIONS

Section 1. The Society shall publish a historical and critical review of mathematical science, called the BULLETIN OF THE AMERICAN MATHEMATICAL SOCIETY, to a copy of each issue of which every member of the Society shall be entitled. It shall also publish a journal, the object of which shall be to make known important researches presented at meetings of the Society; this journal shall be called the TRANSACTIONS OF THE AMERICAN MATHEMATICAL SOCIETY.

Section 2. The editorial management of each publication shall be in charge of a committee, as specified in Article I. Each committee may associate with itself other members of the Society whose assistance it may desire. The Council may designate a chairman of either committee to act as editor-in-chief of the corresponding publication.

ARTICLE XI
AMENDMENTS

These By-Laws may be amended or suspended at any meeting of the Society on recommendation of the Council and by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided notice of such proposed action and of its general nature shall have been given in the call for such meeting.
