The Applied Physics Laboratory
of
The Johns Hopkins University
Announces Appointments
for
SENIOR SCIENTIFIC STAFF

The Assessment Division of The Applied Physics Laboratory has undertaken new responsibilities and is expanding its Senior Analytical Staff. Senior Scientists in such fields as Mathematics, Physics and Physical Chemistry have in the past proven very effective in solving the types of problems involved which include analyses of tactical situations, the employment of future weapon systems and the application of the most recent advances in science and technology.

Performance of the work requires close association with scientists of other laboratories, operations research personnel of all branches of the Armed Services, and with senior military and civilian personnel.

Studies undertaken by this group will provide guide lines for the hardware research of future years. Staff members are expected to initiate ideas in support of a broad program of National Defense needs and carry them through appropriate analyses with assurance that sound results will be given consideration by the responsible agencies.

The Laboratory's locale, equidistant between Baltimore and Washington, D. C., allows staff members to select urban, suburban or rural living and either of these two outstanding centers of culture as a focal point for fine living.

These appointments offer exceptional opportunities. For information and arrangements for interview, write in confidence to:

Dr. Charles F. Meyer
Assessment Division Supervisor

STUDIES IN The Mathematical Theory of Inventory and Production

Kenneth J. Arrow, Samuel Karlin, and Herbert Scarf

This book is the first to explore and formulate the general mathematical concepts behind efficient inventory and production control. The mathematics used represent new developments in the calculus of variations and in the theory of stochastic processes. The developments in stochastic theory relate to both queueing and renewal problems, and considerably improve existing results. 350 pages. Stanford Mathematical Studies in the Social Sciences, I. $8.75

THE AMERICAN MATHEMATICAL SOCIETY respectfully invites and deeply appreciates BEQUESTS AND OTHER CAPITAL GIFTS

A legacy or other capital gift to the American Mathematical Society is an effective contribution to the advancement of mathematical research. Investment income provides essential support for the activities of the Society, and most of it is derived from gifts and bequests which have been made over the years by persons interested in mathematics.

It is the policy of the Society to recognize a donor by attaching his name, or any other name specified by him as a memorial, to the fund given by him or to the activity supported by the fund. Gifts and bequests to the Society are deductible for income, gift, and state tax purposes.
