

THE NOVEMBER MEETING IN MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN

The five hundred eighty-fourth meeting of the American Mathematical Society was held on Friday and Saturday, November 17 and 18, 1961, at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee (UW-M) in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The sessions were held in Room 151, Lapham Hall, beginning at 1:30 P.M., Friday. There was a special session for late papers on Saturday at 11:15 A.M. in Lapham Hall, Room 152. There was a registration of 139, including 104 members of the Society.

By invitation of the Committee to Select Hour Speakers for Western Sectional Meetings, Professor F. W. Gehring of the University of Michigan and Professor Helmut Röhl of the University of Minnesota addressed the Society. Professor Gehring spoke on Quasiconformal mappings in space at 1:30 P.M. on Friday, November 17 and Professor Röhl on Holomorphic fiber bundles over Riemann surfaces at 10:00 A.M. on Saturday, November 18. Presiding officers were Professors Morris Marden and Alfred Aeppli respectively.

The meeting was characterized by the fact that the invited addresses were both exceptionally fine and indeed might well be considered models for future performances.

There was a session on Analysis on Friday at 2:45 P.M. with Professor R. Creighton Buck presiding. There was a session on Topology on Saturday at 11:15 A.M. at which the presiding officer was Professor Louis F. McAuley. Professor Herbert J. Ryser presided at the special session for late papers at which, alas, Professor R. J. Nunke did not appear to present his paper with the fascinating title "Purity."

A feature of the Milwaukee meetings which is becoming traditional is a beer party at one of the local breweries. The Society was the guest of the Miller Brewing Company at their Inn. The party at the Inn was preceded by a special buffet dinner at the Student Union which in turn was preceded by a Tea. On behalf of the Society, the Associate Secretary takes this opportunity to thank Professor Morris Marden and those who assisted him for the obvious efforts they made in contributing to the success of this meeting.
