Travel
By Air: In a valley surrounded by steep hills is the city of Zacatecas, capital of the state of the same name, founded in 1546. Its majestic buildings and colonial churches were made possible by the wealth of earlier gold and silver miners, who amassed great fortunes from its hills. The city is home to some of the country’s most important art and history museums, and is renowned for its beautifully preserved and elegant pink limestone buildings. It is a true colonial gem and one of UNESCO’s World Heritage Sites. Zacatecas is approximately 651 km northwest of Mexico City. Its international airport (ZCL) is served by Mexicana, Líneas Aéreas Azteca, and Aeromar airlines. Rental cars are not recommended.

All U.S. citizens traveling by air must have a valid passport to re-enter the United States after traveling out of the country. See these pages maintained by the Bureau of Consular Affairs, U.S. Department of State for specific information about travel to Mexico at http://travel.state.gov/travel/tips/regional/regional_1174.html.
