100 years from now you can still be advancing mathematics.

When it’s time to think about your estate plans, consider making a provision for the American Mathematical Society to extend your dedication to mathematics well into the future.

Professional staff at the AMS can share ideas on wills, trusts, life insurance plans, and more to help you achieve your charitable goals.

For more information: Robin Marek at 401.455.4089 or rxm@ams.org
Or visit www.ams.org/support