Distribution of Part-time Faculty Salaries for Academic Year 2019-2020

DIRECTIONS

In each box, write the number of part-time salaried faculty whose academic-year pay falls within the given interval. Part-time salaried faculty are those who are not full-time in the institution but who are typically paid throughout the academic or calendar year. For the purpose of this survey, the category of part-time salaried faculty does not include those instructional staff who are paid by the course.

Number of faculty whose full-time salary is	PART-TIME SALARIED FACULTY

Pay for Instructional Staff Paid by the Course for Fall 2019

(Do not include salaried part-time people)

- 1) Is an academic term in your institution a semester  , quarter  , or other _____ ?
- 2) For each pay range, enter the number of term-long sections being taught by men and by women during the fall term of AY 2019–2020. Regard a section as a teaching assignment in which students earn the equivalent of at least “3 credit hours”; in your count, do not attempt to distinguish among courses carrying different amounts of credit (e.g. you need not distinguish between a 3-credit hour course and a 4-credit hour course.)

Number of sections taught by pay range and gender
Per-course pay range	Men	Women less than $1,000
$1,000 to $1,999
$2,000 to $2,999
$3,000 to $3,999
$4,000 to $4,999
$5,000 to $5,999
$6,000 to $6,999
$7,000 to $7,999
$8,000 and above

Faculty Salaries 2019 – 2020 (Facsal)

Conducted by American Mathematical Society

Dear Colleague:

On behalf of the sponsoring societies for the Mathematical and Statistical Sciences Survey (AMS, ASA, IMS, MAA, and SIAM), we request that you please complete the enclosed 2019 questionnaire: Faculty Salaries. Thank you for your continuing participation in the Mathematical and Statistical Sciences Annual Survey.

Our timeline is to have your completed questionnaire by October 31, 2019. You may either transmit your responses as an e-mail attachment to ams-survey@ams.org (using, if you wish, a downloaded PDF form found at ams.org/annual-survey/facsalform.pdf), or send them by post to the address given above.

If it is best completed by another individual (e.g. a dean) please forward this form to that person and let us know his or her name and contact information. Your data will be treated as strictly confidential. Only statistical summaries will be published; we want to assure you that your individual institution will not be identified unless we have your prior permission.

We know there are many demands on your time, but your participation in this survey is important for our profession. It will allow us to determine the distribution of faculty salaries at each rank and category of department. The salary information you and others provide will be summarized and reported in an upcoming issue of Notices of the American Mathematical Society, and highlights will appear in publications of the other sponsoring societies.

If you have any questions or need more time to complete the survey, please feel free to contact us at ams-survey@ams.org or phone 1-800-321-4267, extension 4124.

We look forward to receiving your completed questionnaire.

Sincerley,

Amanda Golbeck, chair, AMS-ASA-IMS-MAA-SIAM Joint Data Committee
Tom Barr, AMS Special Projects Officer

Faculty Salaries for Academic Year 2019–2020

All data is aggregated, so no individual salary or department will be identifiable in published reports.

DIRECTIONS

In each box, write the number of faculty, as defined below, whose academic-year salary falls within the given salary interval and professional rank. (Exclude summer salaries.)

- Full-time faculty means any member of the department, regardless of which courses they teach, who is full-time with the institution, and at least half-time in the department.
- If your institution does not recognize tenure, please check the following box  and then report those with renewable full-time appointments under non-tenure-track faculty.
- Salary means payment by the institution for full-time work for the academic year, 9–10 months, even if paid over 11–12 months.

Please report the: a) Number of full-time faculty with 9–10 month appointments.

b) Number of full-time faculty with 11–12 month appointments (for these appointments multiply the annual salaries by 0.8 before reporting them in the table).
